Ms. Toczko has experience litigating complex insurance coverage and contractual indemnity disputes, including primary/excess issues, policy exclusions, additional insured disputes, and bad faith claims. Ms. Toczko's practice also includes defending companies in complex and class-action litigations involving securities law and professional liability claims. Her experience includes representing several large accounting firms in various civil class actions and regulatory investigations by the SEC and NASD, advising clients on securities regulatory reporting obligations, as well as broker-dealer representation. Past engagements include litigation of bankruptcy, employment, antitrust, and contract disputes as well as internal investigations in anticipation of potential state and/or federal regulatory action. Additionally, Ms. Toczko represented a major oil company in connection with state, federal, and international probes of the United Nations Oil-for-Food Programme.

Prior to joining Abelson | Herron, Ms. Toczko was an associate with Latham & Watkins LLP in San Diego and New York. Ms. Toczko is licensed to practice law in California and New York.

Highlights of Ms. Toczko's Experience Include:

- Representing a major auditing firm in a class-action lawsuit involving claims under Sections 10(b), 11 and 18 of the federal securities laws, as well as various state law claims. Action was dismissed in a decision establishing important precedent on auditor liability issues.
- Representing a major accounting firm in a $2 billion securities fraud class-action lawsuit challenging its accounting for certain telecommunications assets. Court awarded summary judgment in favor of accounting firm.
- Representing a large hotel and casino company in a complex Chapter 11 case, resulting in restructuring of almost $2 billion in debt. Plan of reorganization was confirmed within five months of commencement of the bankruptcy action.
- Representing an international mining company in coverage litigation against umbrella insurers regarding 15 Superfund sites in Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Montana.

- Representing numerous Tibetan nationals in their applications for political asylum and permanent residency in the United States. Also represented domestic violence victims in petitions for legal permanent resident status under the Violence Against Women Act.
