

Noah B. Salamon, Of Counsel

(213) 402-1912 – Direct
nsalamon@abelsonherron.com – Email

Mr. Salamon’s practice focuses on complex civil litigation. He also has significant experience assisting insureds in pursuing coverage. Mr. Salamon teaches Insurance Law at UCLA Law School and has also taught Conflict of Laws at Loyola Law School.

Mr. Salamon joined Abelson | Herron in August 2007. Previously, Mr. Salamon was a litigator at O’Neill, Lysaght and Sun LLP and Irell & Manella LLP, and a Law Clerk for the Honorable Peter J. Messitte, District of Maryland.

Mr. Salamon is a member of the California Bar and is admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Central and Northern Districts of California.

Highlights of Mr. Salamon’s experience include:

- Represented plaintiff in employee indemnity case arising out of investigations into Democratic National Committee campaign fundraising. Successfully opposed summary judgment and obtained stipulated judgment, which was affirmed on appeal. Presented oral argument before California Court of Appeal. Huang v. Democratic National Committee 2004 Cal. App. Unpub. LEXIS 3207.
- Represented municipality in dispute with property insurer arising out of large property loss.
- Represented municipality in connection with third-party claim to joint powers association.
- Represented author in intellectual property dispute.
- Represented the State of California in case arising out of DDT contamination on the Palos Verdes Shelf.

Education

The University of Chicago Law School, J.D. with Honors, 1996
Tony Patino Fellowship
The University of Chicago Law Review
Swarthmore College, B.A. Philosophy, with Distinction, 1993

Publications

Author, “Factors for Determining Corporate Citizenship in California,”
Los Angeles Lawyer, November 1999
Author, “The English Rule in California Courts,”
Los Angeles Lawyer, September 2004